

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

WHYY-TV

FOR THE PERIOD OF JANUARY 1ST, 2011 THROUGH MARCH 31ST, 2011

The license of station WHYY-TV has determined that the following issues were of importance to the Delaware Valley community during the past three months and has aired the following programs to address these issues:

1. ARTS AND CULTURE

Friday Arts

1/7/11 8:30 pm 30 minutes

WHYY's Friday Arts will feature the Museum Without Walls, Termite Television Collective, Bike Fresh Bike Local, the University of Pennsylvania's Morris Arboretum and Villanova Theatre.

On Canvas: George Winston

2/3/11 10:00 pm 30 Minutes

The fourth season of the Emmy Award-winning WHYY-TV series continues with a performance by and interview with George Winston, who has released almost 20 records and soundtracks since the early 1970s and toured extensively in recent years. The On Canvas crew captured a performance by Winston at Sellersville Theater 1894 in upper Bucks County, Pa.

Great Performances: "Harry Connick Jr. in Concert on Broadway"

3/2/11 9:30pm 120 minutes

Twenty years after dazzling audiences in his first solo Broadway concert early in his career, three-time Grammy Award-winner Harry Connick Jr. returned in a roster of favorites, performed in his trademark New Orleans style.

2. CRIME

NewsHour Special Edition

1/12/11 10:30 p.m. 60 Minutes

This special will focus on the memorial service for the Tucson, Ariz., shooting victims. The program will feature President Obama's remarks and additional excerpts from the service.

Frontline: Postmortem

2/1/11

9:00 p.m.

60 Minutes

Every day, nearly 7,000 people die in America. And when these deaths happen suddenly, or under suspicious circumstances, we assume there will be a thorough investigation, just like we see on CSI. But the reality is very different. In over 2,000 counties across America, elected coroners, many with no medical or scientific background, are in charge of death investigations. Nationwide there is a severe shortage of competent forensic pathologists to do autopsies. The rate of autopsies—the gold standard of death investigation—has plummeted over the decades from fifty percent of those who die to less than six percent. As a result, not only do murderers go free and innocent people go to jail, but the crisis in death investigation in America is also a threat to public health. FRONTLINE correspondent Lowell Bergman reports the results of a joint investigation with ProPublica, NPR, and the Investigative Reporting Program at UC Berkeley.

3. ENVIRONMENT

NOVA, Frontline and Independent Lens

A Look Back at the Haiti Earthquakes

1/11/11

8:00 p.m., 9:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.

60 Minutes

NOVA, Frontline and Independent Lens all focus on Haiti and the earthquakes that struck last January.

NOVA scienceNOW*: “What’s the Next Big Thing?”

2/23/11

8:00 p.m.

60 Minutes

Come face to face with social robots that understand human feelings, carry on conversations and even make jokes. Then travel to Haiti, where geologists investigate the 2010 earthquake not long after it struck for clues on how to better forecast future quakes. Afterward, join engineers at General Motors who are testing tiny two-wheeled cars called EN-Vs, which one day might drive themselves along city streets.

Journey to Planet Earth

3/30/11

10:00 p.m.

90 Minutes

Hosted by Matt Damon and produced by Emmy-Award winning filmmakers Marilyn and Hal Weiner, “Plan B: Mobilizing to Save Civilization” is based on the book by environmental visionary Lester

Brown. Shot on location around the world, the film's message is clear and unflinching — either confront the realities of climate change or suffer the consequences of lost civilizations and failed states. Plan B provides audiences with a glimpse into a new and emerging economy based upon renewable sources as well as realistic strategies to avoid the growing threat of global warming. Appearing with Lester Brown are Nobel Laureate Paul Krugman, Pulitzer Prize winner Thomas Friedman, former Governor and Secretary of the Interior Bruce Babbitt, along with other scholars and scientists. Locations include China, Japan, South Korea, India, Italy, Turkey, Bangladesh, Zambia, Haiti, and the United States.

4. HEALTH CARE AND SCIENCE

American Experience: "Dinosaur Wars"

1/17/11 9:00 p.m. 30 Minutes

This episode explores the work and lives of two paleontologists who uncovered the remains of 130 species of dinosaur and collected thousands of specimens, putting American science on the world stage. Othniel Charles Marsh and University of Pennsylvania professor Edward Drinker Cope's professional rivalry, though, left them alone and almost penniless.

NOVA scienceNow: "How Smart Are Animals"

2/9/11 8:00 p.m. 60 Minutes

Would you care to match wits with a dog, octopus, dolphin or parrot? You may think twice after watching the segments in this NOVA scienceNOW episode. The remarkable footage and findings presented in this program demonstrate many animal species are much smarter than we assume and in ways we had never imagined.

NOVA: "Hunting the Edge of Space"

3/23/11 9:00 p.m. 60 Minutes

In this two-hour special, NOVA examines how a simple instrument, the telescope, has fundamentally changed our understanding of our place in the universe. What began as a curiosity — two spectacle lenses held a foot apart — ultimately revolutionized human thought across science, philosophy and religion.

5. POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT

AFTER THE WALL: A WORLD UNITED

1/17/11 10:00 pm 60 Minutes

AFTER THE WALL: A WORLD UNITED, completes a two-part special about the rise and fall of the Berlin Wall, the unification of Germany after 40 years of separation, and the peaceful end of the Cold War. A follow-up to THE WALL: A WORLD DIVIDED, AFTER THE WALL re-visits the events of 1990, going behind the scenes of this unparalleled diplomatic effort to examine how the relationships among world leaders determined the outcome. Interviews with George Bush, Mikhail Gorbachev and Helmut Kohl offer unusual and intimate details about the inner workings of government at the highest levels. Other major players from all sides provide insightful and often surprising perspectives, including then-Secretary of State James Baker, National Security Advisor Brent Scowcroft and his aide Condoleezza Rice, and West German National Security Advisor Horst Teltschik. Hear first-hand testimony from East German leaders who oversaw the abrupt and unexpected end of their 40-year-old experiment in socialism, as well as the stories of ordinary Germans who had to re-invent their lives and make their way in a new nation.

Reagan: American Experience

2/14/11 9:00 pm 150 Minutes

When he left the White House in 1988, Ronald Reagan was one of the most popular presidents of the century - and one of the most controversial. A failed actor, Reagan became a passionate ideologue who preached a simple gospel of lower taxes, less government and anti-communism. One by one, his opponents underestimated him; one by one, Reagan surprised them, rising to become a president who always preferred to see America as a "shining city on a hill." Part 2 of 2.

Washington Week

3/25/11 8:00 pm 30 Minutes

Washington Week is the longest-running primetime news & public affairs program on television. Washington Week features a group of journalists participating in roundtable discussion of major news events.
